Heard.

Petitioners, a couple with two children, employed in Kuwait and Indians by birth applied for registration of their marriage under the Special Marriage Act. I am satisfied that the petitioners has shown sufficient cause to waive the notice period of 30 days for the registration of their marriage on a provisional basis.

2. Under such circumstances, it is directed that the request for the petitioner, Registry shall be accepted and their marriage registered on condition that such registration shall be notified in the notice board of the 1st respondent for a period of 30 days and if any objections are received to the registration of marriage, petitioners will be annulled of such objections and if such objections are sustained after hearing, the registration shall be recalled. The marriage certificate shall also be issued.

The writ petition is disposed of as above.

THOTTATHIL B. RADHAKRISHNAN,
JUDGE
